QUINN/TAMM

Mr. Tamm was born August 10, 1910, in Seattle, Washington. He graduated from the University of Virginia in 1934 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Geology.

Mr. Tamm entered on duty with the FBI as a Clerk-Typist in December, 1934, and was appointed to the position of Special Agent in April, 1936. During his tenure in the FBI, Mr. Tamm served in the Laboratory Division as an Analytical Chemist, as Chief in the Identification Division, and as Assistant Director of the Laboratory, Identification, and Training and Inspection Divisions, at various times. He held the rank of Assistant Director when he retired January 23, 1961.

After leaving the FBI, Mr. Tamm served as Director, Field Services Division, International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP), and was appointed Executive Director (highest staff position in IACP) of that organization October 7, 1962.

Mr. Tamm still serves as Executive Director of the IACP but it has been reported he will retire from that position at the end of 1974.
